

JAPS FOOLED THE RUSSIANS

Defeat Them After The Czar's Men Think They Have Won The Fight Easily.

VARIOUS REPORTS ARE SENT OUT

Explosions Are Heard In The Neighborhood of Port Arthur Almost Daily—Closing In The Cordon.

[Special by Scripps-McRae.]
Tokio, July 12.—With the campaign in Manchuria resolving itself into a constant succession of desperate battles, the official reports from the commanders in the field are becoming notably meager. This is due to the secretive methods of the Japanese, who do not intend that any news shall leak out that might in any way give the Russians an insight of their plans. It is certain, however, that the Japanese are advancing on Liao Yang by the main Mukden road and by the two turnpikes to the northward of the Russian position. The Russians have offered but little serious resistance to the Japanese, excepting at Kalping, which was occupied by the Japanese on July 9. This place was held by a force of 20,000 Russians and the events leading up to its capture form a succession of forced marches and desperate fighting.

Cossacks Give Battle
On the morning of July 6 Gen. Oku started with his army from Fritau-ho, twelve miles south of Kalping. The Japanese marched to the west railway, where the land is comparatively level, and for the first day little resistance was encountered. On the morning of July 7 the advancing Japanese were attacked by a column of Cossacks, who endeavored by charging the Japanese center to cut the column in half. The fighting lasted for three hours and the Russians finally retired, only to make another stand that same evening.

On the evening of July 8 the Japanese scouts reported that the Russian commander was concentrating his forces south of Kalping and Gen. Oku immediately brought up all of his available forces and prepared to attack the next morning. With daybreak of July 9, the Japanese artillery which had been posted near by opened fire on the Russian entrenchments on the outskirts of Kalping and an artillery duel followed which lasted for nearly four hours.

Gallant Bayonet Charge
Finally about 9:30 o'clock the order to advance was given and the Japanese infantry with fixed bayonets swarmed up the heights of the Kalschanchan and Sekwangtanna, driving the Russians out from the positions they occupied. The Japanese were then enabled to shell Kalping, with the result that the Russian position soon became untenable. The Russians soon began slowly retiring from the town, covering their retreat with a heavy gun fire.

The Japanese dragged their heavy guns into commanding positions and again opened fire on the Russians about noon. By this time all of the Russian heavy artillery had been silenced and the Russians were in full retreat.

Japanese Losses Heavy
The Russian losses were small compared with those of the Japanese, the latter losing many men in the first desperate charge which gave them the positions on the heights. However, it is not yet possible to give figures, none having been prepared.

There are some 60,000 Russians concentrated in the neighborhood of Tashibichan, and they are reported to have a sufficiency of heavy guns. The next movement will be against this force, it is believed.

Magnificent Generalship
The co-operation of the operations of the three Japanese armies is most remarkable. Thus, between June 20 and 29 Gen. Kuroki's right, after a period of inactivity, suddenly captured all of the defiles of the Liao Yang roads and the Takushan army, operating at a point forty-eight miles distant, seized the defiles of the Hai Cheng road. Now again, Gen. Kuroki, between July 1 and 3 pushed to the immediate east of Liao Yang and Gen. Oku between July 6 and July 9 rolled up the other end of the Russian line seventy-five miles away.

Russians Retreat
New Chwang, July 12.—Chinese who have arrived here report the Russians at all points in the field of hostilities are retiring from their positions. A large quantity of shipping is at present in New Chwang harbor.

Make an Attack
Tokio, July 12.—Admiral Togo reports an attack was made on Port Arthur by the torpedo boats yesterday. The result is not known. The Japanese vessels were not damaged.

Two Explosions
Chefoo, July 12.—A junk arrived today which reports two terrific explosions were heard in direction of Port Arthur yesterday.

Japs Attempt to Enter Harbor
Chefoo, July 12.—A European who left Port Arthur on Sunday at 5 p. m. says the Japanese made an attack with torpedo boats at 1 o'clock Sunday morning, and attempted to penetrate the harbor. They were repulsed without loss to either side.

The Russians arriving here admit that more than 1,500 wounded have arrived at Port Arthur since Friday, and many more to come.

The Port Arthur Novel Kral of July 7, a copy of which has just reached Chefoo, contains an account of the operations around Port Arthur from July 3 to July 8. It says:

Jap Strength Is Unknown.
"Heavy fighting has occurred between the first line of defenses and the Japanese. The results are not announced. Nevertheless, little at the time the facts are becoming known. Our side sent scouts to ascertain the position and strength of the enemy and whether they were protected by trenches. It was impossible to find out the exact strength of the Japanese, but they do not number less than 20,000 men. The Chinese credit them with 60,000. Thirty thousand men are not sufficient for operations against a fortress like this, unless they expect assistance."

"After three days' fighting the positions of the two armies were as follows: On the left flank we retained the position we originally occupied. The forcing of our right flank back previous to this was rectified, and now we have both Green and Semaphore hills in our hands. In front of these hills we are not opposed, but we are being heavily shelled from both sides. The enemy retired a considerable distance."

Loss Is Heavy.
"Of course, all this was not won without losses, some of which will strike the hearts of our countrymen. We started to take the offensive the night of July 1, when we began a strong attack. Our soldiers, who had been forced back at Kinchow, were waiting for an opportunity to get at the Japanese. The result was most satisfactory. The infantry marched out as if engaged in maneuvers, while the artillery, taking up a position, opened a fierce fire with shrapnel on the enemy's line, resulting in their retirement."

Russian Warships Are Active.
"During the three days' battle the Novik and a fleet of gunboats left the harbor daily, covering the right flank of the army and stopping the fire of the enemy's artillery. On July 4 the Novik fortunately obtained the range of the enemy's batteries and did faithful damage to them."

"All the morning the gunboats, shell out receiving any return fire, while the enemy's troops marching toward our defenses. The Japanese fleet appeared in the afternoon and our gunboats returned to the inner harbor without sustaining any damage."

MORE FACTORIES SEEK JANESVILLE

Buffalo Man Writes He Has a Factory That Would Like to Locate Here.

The following letter was received by mail today. In it is reference to letters sent to Mayor Hutchinson and the secretary of the board of trade. Inquiry of Mr. Bingham, secretary of the Business Men's association, shows that these letters were received and that the matter has been taken up with Mr. Dow. The letter is as follows:

Buffalo, July 11, 1904.
Editor of Gazette, Janesville, Wis.
Dear Sir: I am in line to offer your city a very exceptional opportunity in the way of securing a new industry, a corporation that would employ several hundred hands, a large percentage being skilled mechanics, as it comprises the manufacture of motors, engines and a complete 16 H. P. gasoline touring car, a business you will admit that will add greatly to the dignity and general prosperity of any city. I have written both the mayor and the secretary of the board of trade of Janesville and I believe you would be serving the ends of a newspaper if you see to it that my letters to these gentlemen are productive of results.

Yours truly,
F. IRVING DOW.

Berlin, July 12.—The trial was begun today of nine German socialists, who are charged with having offended the czar of Russia by smuggling a revolutionary writing in to Russia.

SENATOR DAVIS' SPAN IS SHORT

It Is Doubtful If the Venerable Democratic Candidate Can Stand the Strain.

Washington, D. C., July 12.—Will Henry G. Davis of West Virginia, the democratic candidate for vice president, live until Nov. 8? This has been the principal question in the discussions throughout the executive departments here today in reviewing the political situation. Mortality statistics published by life insurance companies are attracting the attention of shrewds, who are now busy figuring out Mr. Davis' chances of voting next November, and some of them have thought it worth while to risk a bet that Mr. Davis was placed upon the ticket with the expectation that he would contribute liberally to the expenses of the campaign, and for this reason advanced age raises the question in the minds of republicans here whether the democratic campaign managers will have their plans frustrated by death. The stress of a hard campaign, such as everyone predicts will be waged during the fall, will be trying upon a man of Mr. Davis' years. Should he be elected and live until March 4, to enter the senate as its presiding officer, Mr. Davis would find there only one man older than himself. This emphasizes his age, because in the senate are a number of elderly men.

The serious doubt as to whether Mr. Davis will survive the campaign brings to the front the important question as to what might happen if the democratic ticket should be successful. Those who have examined the statistics say that Mr. Davis may reasonably expect to live until inauguration day, but that the chances are decidedly against his living out the next administration. Under the law of succession the secretary of state fills any vacancy that may occur in the presidency or vice presidency. The voters on election day will have no idea who will be secretary of state should Judge Parker be elected. Knowing the law of succession, Judge Parker would, if called upon to make a cabinet, select as his secretary of state some strong man of conservative views, but the republicans are emphasizing the danger in the situation by trying to show what would happen should the democrats elect the president and Judge Parker place William J. Bryan or some radical democrat at the head of the cabinet.

THAT BOOK AGENT GOT THE MONEY

And Now the Clerks in a Large Dry Goods Store Wonder How It Happened.

Members of the staff of one of the large dry goods stores of the city are looking with blood in their eyes for the unscrupulous book agent who enticed them to separate themselves from a dollar, receiving in return a small volume of supposed invaluable advice. They were to receive a similar volume each month and at the end of six months were to return them and receive a large beautifully bound volume. Now they find they have been humbugged and they want their money back.

GREAT STRIKE HAS STARTED

Stock Yard Employees All Over the Country Are Walking Out This Afternoon.

CHICAGO IS THE FIRST AFFECTED

Kansas City Follows—Whole Industry Is Practically at a Standstill—Offers of Compromise Have Been Rejected.

[Special by Scripps-McRae.]
Chicago, July 12.—At noon today fifty thousand packing house employees are to go on a strike. The offer of the packers last night to arbitrate was rejected on the ground that it was too late, the men having tried to adjust the differences since May. Twenty thousand are out in Chicago, and nine other packing centers are affected. Extra police are detailed in the Chicago stock yards district to preserve order and protect non-union men.

In addition to the union employees who quit ten thousand others depending upon those industries, were thrown out of work. Between three and four hundred non-union men have been imported by the packers. It is not known when an effort will be made to begin operations. The end of the strike cannot be predicted. Both sides are determined to fight to the "last ditch." Meat prices are expected to take a big jump shortly. The meat workers walked out at noon. The best of order was preserved.

More Go Out
Kansas City, Mo., July 12.—About eight thousand employees of five packing houses struck at noon today pursuant to orders from President Donnelly of the amalgamated cutters and butcher workmen.

TAXES WILL BE A FIFTH HIGHER

As Near as the Estimate Can Be Made at This Time—Special Sewer Tax in Districts.

As near as can be estimated at this time the taxes will be one-fifth higher this year on account of the new Court street bridge, the new school-house, fire-station, and voting machines. Were it not for these expenditures the tribute would have been lower than it was last year. In the four sewerage districts—numbers 5, 6, 11, and 12—the following sums must be raised outside of the amount paid at the rate of forty cents per foot of frontage: fifth district, $2,700; sixth, $1,100; eleventh, $1,800; twelfth, $4,500. The tax levy for these districts in their order will be one and a half mills on the dollar for districts five and six; four mills for district eleven, and three mills for district twelve.

Several manufacturing plants at McKeesport, Pa., will start today giving employment to 5,000 men.

CHRONICLE COMES INTO REPUBLICAN PARTY TODAY

"A Mixture of Bryanism and Hillism Is Insupportable"—Democratic Paper Sees the Light.

Ten years ago the Chicago Chronicle was established in Chicago as a democratic newspaper. From the start it openly espoused the cause of democracy and during the sensational national campaign of 1896 it stood aloof from the free silver craze. However, in 1900 it did what it could for the winning cause of Bryanism in a half-hearted manner. In Chicago politics it has long been known as an opponent of the democratic political flag headed by Carter Harrison, although espousing the democratic side in state issues. This morning it comes into the republican ranks. It does not take any half way measure but states its stand emphatically. The Chronicle is a strong paper and its endorsement of the republican party and press the country over. The following is the editorial announcement which appeared in this morning's issue of the Chronicle:

The Chronicle Republican
When one thousand men representing the democrats of the United States, most of them chosen with much difficulty as representatives of what is called conservative democracy, permit a mere demagogue to bully them into wrong-doing it must be that the demagogue is greater than the party.

Two-thirds of the delegates to the national democratic convention voted for Judge Parker on the first ballot—the man whom Mr. Bryan had traduced for three months, the man whose friends Mr. Bryan had vilified, the man whom Mr. Bryan had said should not be nominated and could not be elected.

When a cowardly committee representing these delegates brought in a platform which was silent on the money question not a voice was raised in expostulation or protest. While hundreds were ready to shout for Parker, not one appeared in defense of elementary democracy.

Mr. Bryan not only graciously permits the democratic party to name a candidate whom he has done his best to defeat in advance, but he places him on a platform with a hole in it big enough to drop the entire party through.

It is bad enough to have Mr. Bryan dominating radical democratic conventions. When Mr. Bryan is able to silence a "conservative" democratic convention the situation becomes intolerable. A mixture of William J. Bryanism and David B. Hillism is insupportable.

The Chronicle is not in sympathy

DREW A JURY FOR ATKINSON TRIAL

Twelve Men Will Sit on Case Which Is To Be Tried Tomorrow—Lavine Will Plead Guilty.

In municipal court this morning a jury of twelve was drawn for the trial of John Atkinson, charged with holding up Fanny Burke, which commenced at nine o'clock tomorrow morning. Dan Lavine charged with burglarizing James Ryan's apartments and the railroad station at Delavan, has waived an examination and will plead guilty. He will be sentenced on Monday next.

OVER A THOUSAND MILES IN AN AUTO.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Dudley Returned from Two Weeks' Trip Today—Hill-Climbing in Dubuque.

Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Dudley returned last evening from their tour of over a thousand miles through Iowa. They crossed the bridge at Dubuque at nine o'clock in the morning and were on the Milwaukee street bridge at eight o'clock last evening. Taking into consideration the hills and the two hours' delay for dinner and supper the trip was made in very good time. There are few automobiles in Dubuque and Dr. Dudley surprised the natives by climbing with the greatest ease a hill that was supposed to be impossible for autos. A few punctures were the only homeward incidents encountered.

FINANCE COMMITTEE HAS MADE ANNUAL TAX BUDGET

An Increase of $9,464.87 Over Past Year--
Total This Year Is $114,040...Many Improvements Planned.

Report of the Finance Committee of the Common Council of Janesville, Wisconsin, upon the tax budget and levy for 1901.

To the Honorable Mayor and Common Council:

The Finance Committee beg leave to report upon the estimates and tax levy for the coming year as follows:

Your committee take pleasure in stating that, with the exception of the school fund, the amounts raised in 1900 have been adequate for the disbursements of the city. It was the plan of the council in 1900 to pay off all floating indebtedness, and to close the year without the necessity of borrowing funds. In order to attain this result the strictest economy has been necessary, and yet that economy has not been such as to interfere with a careful attention to all the needs of the city. Our bridges, with the exception of Court street bridge, where there is to be a new one, have been put in repair; the streets have been kept in good order; and in some of the wards improvements of a permanent nature have been made.

At the present time we are confronted with demands for increased expenditures along many lines, some of such increased amounts, as heretofore shown, being considerable. It would be unwise to pursue a parsimonious or miserly policy. While we must practice a careful economy, and conduct the affairs of the city on a good, business-like basis, we must not interfere with the progress of the city, or to limit its desirability as a place of residence and business.

We have here a prosperous and thriving city. We wish to make it an attractive city in every way, and to adopt such a policy as will lead men to come here to develop business enterprises and establish their residences in our midst. We must pursue the golden mean between a policy of parsimony and one of lavish expenditure.

Your committee are of the opinion that the taxpayers and citizens of Janesville will sustain the council in a liberal treatment of those interests which are related to the material advancement, beauty, education, culture, and general progress of the city.

The bonded indebtedness of the city is at present $116,000. To this should be added $19,000 to be issued on account of the Court street bridge and $15,000 on account of the new school house and equipment, making a total of $150,000.

In the levy which we are about to make, there is provision for the payment of $3,000 on the principal of the new high school bonds, $3,000 on the principal of the city hall bonds, first issue, $1,000 on the principal of the city hall bonds, second issue, $1,000 on the principal of the bridge bonds, and $1,000 on the principal of the bonds for the new school house, making a total of $9,000. After the payment of these amounts, the bonded indebtedness will be reduced to $141,000. Of this amount $141,000 is interest is $6,220, making a total of $15,220 for both principal and interest.

Forty-four saloon licenses and three licenses to brewers have been issued. Each license brings to the city the net sum of $450, $50 out of the $500 goes to the county. The forty-seven licenses will bring to the city in revenue $21,150. Of this amount $1500 goes to the fire and water fund, leaving $19,650 for the benefit of the general fund.

The valuations in 1900 were $9,055,800, divided among the several wards as shown in the report of the finance committee for last year. At the time of the preparation of this report, the total valuations for this year had not been fully estimated. The assessors, however, inform us that there will be a reduction of about $95,000, most of this amount being due to reductions on account of tobacco.

The board of education has filed a request for $10,000, heretofore attached, and marked "Exhibit A," are the estimated amounts for the coming year made by the board. The total amount, as shown there, is $56,222.88. The total amount of the estimates for 1901 was $17,590. The increase in the estimates over those of last year is $38,732.88.

Of necessity, the expenditure for our schools is constantly increasing. The new school house on Jackson street, with its equipment and corps of teachers, will entail an added annual expenditure. The time of the school year is to be increased, which will bring about an increase in teachers' salaries. There are other items increasing the disbursements, which cannot be avoided. The amount received from the state by the school board for the past year was $8,193.29, and the amount from the county $8,740.52. The aforesaid amount from the state for the past year will be the amount which will be received from the county for the coming year. The amount from the state for the coming year will likely be approximately the same as for the past year.

The school board is made up of men of intelligence and probity, who are interested in the welfare of the city. The chairman of the finance committee of the school board is one of the leading bankers of the city. The affairs of the board are conducted in a careful, businesslike, and conservative manner. Your committee would like to be given what they have asked. We are all interested in our schools. We wish to deal with them with a generous hand. The schools more vitally affect our children than any other public institution, and for that reason, they are entitled to our most careful and most liberal consideration. Whatever is done for the good of the children is done for the good of the city and the state in the future. The best investment that any city can make is that which is made for the benefit of its children.

However, we are confronted with extraordinary conditions at the present time. We have the new Court street bridge with the $1,000 payment on the principal and the interest on the bonds; the new school on Jackson street, with the $1,000 on the principal and the interest on the bonds; the new fire station and equipment, which will entail an expenditure of $5,000; and, finally, the expense of $3,000 for voting machines. In addition, there will be the general tax for sewers in districts five, six, eleven, and twelve, besides the special assessments of forty cents per foot on the lots abutting on the sewers to be constructed. There is also to be paying done on South Main street, East Milwaukee street, and West Milwaukee street. Therefore, we are compelled to limit the amount to be raised for the school board, leaving it to succeeding councils to deal with the matter as best they can. We recommend that $35,000 be raised for the board of education.

The amount levied for the general fund last year was $12,500. We have on hand, according to the clerk's books, an excess of $3,000. There are some bills unpaid which should be charged to this fund, for the past year, but they will be approximately offset by the amounts to be credited to the general fund, and charged to the several ward funds. In addition to the amounts provided last year, we must raise this coming year as follows:

Voting machines ..... $3,000
New fire station, building and lot ..... 3,000
Sewer tax to be apportioned against school houses, fire stations, parks, etc. .... 1,500 making a total of $7,500 increase. Adding this to the $12,500, we have $20,000. We have $17,000 to be raised for the general fund.

Heretofore attached and marked "Exhibit B" are the estimates for the fire department, signed by H. C. Klein, chief engineer. No comment is needed, save to say that such estimates include $2,000 for the equipment of the new fire station, and $900 for the maintenance of such station for six months. Of course, the sum of $1,500 is deducted from the total estimates of the Chief. The amount raised last year by taxation was $15,000. Your committee recommend for the coming year for the fire and water fund $17,145.

The president of the Janesville public library has filed with the committee a request for $4,000 for the coming year, together with a statement of expenditures, heretofore attached, and marked "Exhibit C." The total amount given to the citizens of Janesville for library purposes, outside of taxation, was $40,000; $30,000 from Mr. Carnegie, and $10,000 from Mr. Eldred. Had Mr. Carnegie provided the $40,000 he would have stipulated that $4,000 be raised annually. Mr. Eldred, relying upon the generosity of the citizens whom he benefited by his request, made no such stipulation. Your committee are of the opinion that $4,000 is reasonably needed by the library board, and recommend that this amount be raised for the Janesville public library.

We now have two hundred and four lights, which cost the city $12,648. Doubtless, extra lights are needed in some places, and your committee recommend that there be raised for the lighting fund the sum of $13,000.

There is a balance at the present time, in our Bridge Fund of $1047.86. We are of the opinion that this will be adequate for the coming year.

As there are no judgments against the city, we recommend that nothing be raised for the Judgment Fund.

There is to be levied, as provided by law, the sum of $75.00 for Memorial Day.

There is a comfortable working balance in each of the Ward Funds at the present time, with the possible exception of the Fourth Ward Fund. That fund has been drawn upon to make permanent improvements by way of a storm sewer.

For the Ward Funds, your committee recommend that the following amounts be raised:

First Ward ..... $2500.00
Second Ward ..... 2000.00
Third Ward ..... 3000.00
Fourth Ward ..... 2000.00
Fifth Ward ..... 2000.00

The total tax levy, including the Ward Funds, in 1901, was $101,575.13. The amount recommended in the foregoing report is $114,040.00, an increase over 1900 of $12,464.87. The excess over the levy for 1902 is $2127.23.

Exclusive of the Ward Funds, the amount raised in 1901 was $91,575.13. The amount recommended here is $101,540.00, an increase of $9,964.87. The increase over the amount for 1902 is $1027.23.

The increase is easily accounted for by the following amounts, which it will be well to bring together by way of recapitulation:

Increase to School Board ..... $5000.00
New fire station ..... 5000.00
Increase to Library Board ..... 500.00
Voting machines ..... 3000.00
Sewer tax on public property 1500.00

Total ..... $15000.00

The committee recommend as a general tax for sewers in Districts Five, Six, Eleven, and Twelve, the amounts named by the Street Assessment Committee.

Your committee cannot close this report without expressing the earnest hope that all will look carefully to the expenditures of the city for the coming year. We are on a sound financial basis. There is no floating indebtedness, except that of the School Fund. There are balances in all the other funds, with the possible exception of the Fourth Ward Fund, as heretofore explained. There is a tendency to extravagance where finances are in good condition and large amounts of money are being raised. While there is an increase over that of last year, we think the increase has been satisfactorily explained in the foregoing report.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
Dated at Janesville, Wisconsin, July 11, 1901.

ALEXANDER E. MATHESON,
Chairman.

E. J. SCHMIDLEY,
(Signed.)

TOBACCO TALK TO ALL THE GROWERS

The Eastern Tobacco Journals Have Much To Say on General
Condition of Crops.

Practically no sales of any importance have been recorded. Only about 10 per cent of the 1900 crop now remains in first hands and farmers are generally busy with the new crop. On the whole conditions have proved fairly satisfactory, though somewhat of a setback has been experienced from the recent spell of cold winds which retarded the rapid growth of the plants and caused them to take on a rather yellowish hue. Since then, however, weather conditions have been propitious and it is confidently expected that the plants will recover completely. Cut and wire worms are doing some damage in Connecticut, but over the greater part of Massachusetts the crop is exceptionally free from the pests. The total acreage planted in tobacco seems to be about the same as last year, though the proportion of broad leaf is not so far as was originally expected.

Some buying is still going on through the movement shows a decline from former weeks. For several weeks steady buying has been going on with the result that there is no surplus remaining in the country hands, and it is believed that the crop is as closely picked up as that of last year at a corresponding date. Prices, however, have remained low. The outlook for the new crop is most encouraging. The transplanting is now pretty well completed at a date but little later than last year. Generally speaking the crop has gone into the fields under better conditions than the ordinary year. The weather has been favorable both in the matter of timely sun and rain and nearly all the early set fields show the plants well started. There has been but little complaint of damage from cut worms. Shipments out of storage from Edgerton for the week amounted to about 300 cases.

Conditions remain unchanged; with the exception of some sales in the neighborhood of Woodstock, there are no transactions recorded. Transplanting in most sections is finished and all reports are to the effect that the plants are looking well.

Weather conditions have been favorable to the new crop. The planting has proceeded apace of late and the young plants are showing up exceedingly well.

JANESVILLE MAN A REPRESENTATIVE

A. A. Jackson is One of the Eleven to Represent the Wisconsin
State Bar Association.

The following have been appointed by the executive committee of the State Bar association to represent the association at the congress of lawyers to be held in St. Louis the latter part of September: Joshua Stark, Milwaukee; George C. Greene, Green Bay; A. A. Jackson, Janesville; A. L. Sanborn, Madison; L. J. Nash, Manitowish; George H. Noyes, Milwaukee; S. S. Hines, West Bend; H. H. Grace, Superior; John M. Gill, Madison; Cornelius L. Harling, Milwaukee; M. A. Hurley, Wausau.

White chiffon is shirred over a frame of silver wire to fall in a full double ruffle over the edge. The crown is low and spreading, and a deep bandeau in the front lifts the shape of the face, a soft twist of Dresden ribbon which ends in a rosette at the left side covering the band. The crown is encircled with a wreath of large roses of every tint, from the palest yellow and pink down to a full rich red Jacquemont, the colors being blended with artistic skill and a splashing bow of the Dresden ribbon appearing as a finish in the back.

CARRIE NATION ASKS PERMISSION

Writes to the Beloit Fair Management for a Chance to Wield Her Little Hatchet.

Carrie Nation wants to be an attraction at the Beloit Interstate fair. She is more than willing to come to Beloit, and says she would bring a big supply of hatchets with her. The question is up to Secretary T. D. Corcoran to decide, and if he but gives the word Carrie will fall all over herself in her haste to get there.

Mr. Corcoran has received a letter from the smasher in which she says: "I would be one of the best attractions you could get. I will bring a supply of hatchets and make things lively if they will engage me. Please answer by return mail as I am in correspondence with other fairs and expect to be very busy this summer."

The secretary is anxious to get attractions that will make the fair a lively event but he is not a man to decide things on the impulse of the moment. So he has carefully laid the letter away, with a heavy paperweight on it to hold its level. After a few days of calm deliberation he will make up his mind whether it will pay to have Carrie at the fair or not. Then he will write one of his most diplomatic letters accepting or declining the proposition. But what if he should lose her by failing to answer by return mail?

BUTTERFLIES ARE STILL MISSING

The Severe Cold of Last Winter Almost Eliminated Them—A Good and Bad Feature.

The myriads of butterflies that are usually seen in Janesville at this time of the year are almost entirely missing this season. In previous years they might be seen hovering over the flower gardens and fields and they had no little part in contributing to the beauty of many a garden. Butterflies hatch in April and during May, June and July usually be seen in great numbers. Other common insects are also missing this year. The severe cold of last winter and the great amount of wet weather of this spring have been the cause of the scarcity.

As insects play a large part in the propagation of vegetable life by carrying pollen from plant to plant, it is probable that the different kinds of flowers will be scarcer next season. There is a good feature in this dearth of butterflies, however. The cabbage butterfly, that has been a destroyer of these vegetables, is said to be entirely absent this year.

The lack of insects affects birds somewhat. Birds have always depended largely upon insects for food, and they suffer more or less from the absence of insects.

Several varieties of birds that have made Janesville their home in previous summers, are absent this year, on account of the cold and wet season. The brown thrasher is very much less common than usual. The dickcissel is hardly seen at all. The indigo bunting, the field sparrow, the vesper sparrow, and the night hawk are represented, but by few of their numbers. These birds all like hot weather and dry ground and so do not visit this region.

Wet weather also affects the nesting and rearing of young birds. The eggs and the young birds become chilled, and many have perished in that way this season. "There are fewer nests this year among all kinds of birds," said a local student of bird lore, in speaking of the absence of many birds this year.

Next month several kinds of warblers will make Janesville short visits. They start their fall migrations to the south in August and September and on the southward journey stop along the way, going much more slowly than on their way to the north in the spring. Among those that will pass through Janesville then are the plain warbler, the Cape May warbler, the bay-breasted warbler, and the black Apollo warbler. The absence of many of our usual birds will make the warblers' stay even more welcome than over before to bird lovers.

OLD FOGY COMES OUT VERY STRONG

HE URGES THE PUBLIC TO CONSIDER THE SITUATION.

Does Not Grumble at All

Simply Tells of the Existing Conditions, and Says Something Should Be Done at Once.

To the Editor: Both yourself and the public will excuse another letter from me at this time I am sure, when I intend to talk upon a subject of vital importance to the city's interest. During the past summer there has been an epidemic of crime in the city, the perpetrators of which have for the most part gone unobserved. Fights have occurred, the participants of which have not been arrested, drunken women have defied decent men and women on Sunday nights and have not even been arrested. Brawls have occurred on public streets in which the men involved have been badly bruised. No arrests. Burglaries have taken place in broad daylight, stores been robbed, residences plundered and still no punishment for the criminals. As late as last Saturday night I learn that the residence of J. T. Lloyd on Pearl street was entered and robbed. Sunday morning the residence of Edward Ruger on Mineral Point avenue was robbed and the home of Mrs. Phillips, next door, also looted. Recently a burglary occurred in the third ward during the night and the police officer on duty on that side of the river could not be found that a report might be made to him. He was suspended by City Marshal Hogan and after a few weeks of idleness was reinstated at Hogan's request, I am told, and his pay resumed. I am told, and his pay resumed. I am told, and his pay resumed.

He was appointed as a police officer in a man whose only claim for qualifications appear to be a personal friendship. To the knowledge of many there are others who are better qualified as police officers who have passed the examinations required by law, which he has not, who have had experience and would take the place and make a better officer than the person appointed. Why has this partially been shown? Why has the state law been evaded? Why is not the police department of the city run in a business-like manner? Who is to blame for the epidemic of crime? Who has the power to remedy it? These are pertinent questions. Questions that every taxpayer is thinking of; questions that demand an answer by words or deeds. I have suggested the department be reorganized. I repeat that statement. It should be done at once. If the present officers are not sufficient or capable to cope with the existing conditions then let us have an entirely new force. Put sentiment behind the door and look for the best interests of the city and the taxpayers. There is a police commission appointed under the state law governing such affairs that should act and act at once. This is composed of Peter Mount, William Jeffries, Thomas S. Nolan, and George McKee. We had an exhibition on the fourth of July of men who claimed they had been granted permission of the head of the police department to run gambling devices on the streets on the fourth and who resented the interference of the citizens' committee who compelled them to close up. We have repeated infractions of city ordinances of which the police take no notice and our young men and women are growing up with lawlessness existing practically unnoted before their eyes. It is time to think and act and that quickly.

"OLD FOGY."

JANESVILLE MAN
OWNS AN ISLAND

Charles Jenkins Has Purchased Summer Resort from Canadian Government.

Charles Jenkins, a Janesville man, is the owner of a real live island which he has purchased from the Canadian government. The location of this wonderful tract of land is two miles east of Saint Ste Marie. It is in the north passage of St. Joseph's channel and one and one half miles from Desbarts by water. Mr. Jenkins expects to go there in August to thoroughly investigate his purchase and make arrangements for a summer home. On the Canadian land tract the island was known as No. 74 and 75 but Mr. Jenkins will doubtless rechristen it in a proper manner. Desbarts, its nearest settlement and it is here that the production of Longfellow's Hawatha is produced each year. The whole surrounding country is of great historic interest owing to the early Indian settlements and the trading posts of the early French trappers.

Not Always Religiously Inclined.
Dr. John Kerr, in his new book of "Memoirs," recalls a number of humorous Scotch stories. Among them is a story of the "argumentatively tlay" Scot, who, calling on the minister and being told to go home and return the next day when he was sober, replied: "Man, minister, when I'm sober I dinna care a d—n for religious conversation."

Took Both Pictures.
It is told of the late Clarence King that he met John Ruskin in a picture shop and his comments were so delightfully phrased that Ruskin took him to his heart, inviting him to Coniston and offering him one of his two greatest water-colors by Turner. "One good Turner," said King, "deserves another," and took both.

Limits Height of Buildings.
Buildings in the principal streets of Liverpool, England, are not allowed to exceed ninety feet in height.

Whisky in Great Britain.
Great Britain is said to consume 6,000,000 gallons of whisky each year.

FINE MARKET FOR THOSE BOW-WOWS

Filipinos at St. Louis Are Ready
Buyers for All Sorts of Canine.

Opening at last for Janesville's collection of worthless curs! Feed 'em to Filipinos. A profitable enterprise for the right man is to gather up the mongered mess and ship it to the world's fair at St. Louis to satisfy the craving of the dog-eating Igorrotes. For days the Igorrotes have called for food, only to be met with the discouraging cry of "No more dogs." The streets and alleys of St. Louis have been scoured by police and private detectives on foot and on horse for stray canines, but from the smallest terrier puppy to the nector of the Newfoundland family, the dog supply would be furnished from cities at the north. The practical features of the export dog trade are now up to our enterprising people.

One alert fourth warder got a "hunch" that there was a good market dogs on the hoof in St. Louis from a friend just back from there. This visitor reported a big, voracious colony of Igorrotes, men, women and children, that fairly doted on dogs. These Filipinos eat other meat, but a nicely browned canine haunch is to them what spring chicken is to us. Even razor-back hogs from Indiana cannot be substituted without causing the islanders to bristle with resentment. They relish rice with dog, quite after our fashion of mint with lamb, and vegetables for side dishes come not amiss. But bull pup, pug or nondescript cur they must have—and Janesville has just a generous car load that, in the language of the opera, never would be missed.

IT COSTS MONEY TO RUN LIBRARY

Healing Bill Four Times as Large as Anticipated—Terms of Three Directors Have Expired.

In the report of the library board submitted to the council last evening and signed by William Blundin, president, and S. B. Smith, secretary, it was shown that there was a balance on hand of $889.69. The board's plan for an appropriation of $4,000 instead of $3,500 was that the running expenses had been found to be much larger than anticipated—the bill for fuel four times as large. It was the opinion of the board that more books were needed for the children's department and the statement was also made in the report that the salaries paid to librarians and assistants were too small. No recommendations regarding the latter, however, were made. The terms of office of three directors expired on June 30. They are Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, H. L. Skavlen, and Charles L. Fitch. Mayor Hutchinson did not fill the vacancies last evening.

TO HEAR ARGUMENTS OF ST. RAILWAY CO.

Representatives Will Tell Aldermen
Thursday Night, Why It Should Not Pay for Pavement Between Tracks

When the slow horse-cars were superseded by the swift trolley-liners in Janesville an ordinance requiring the Street Railway Co. to pay for and maintain the portion of the pavement or macadam lying between its tracks was repealed. Within the past year another ordinance designed to again lay this burden on the company was introduced but never advanced to its third reading. The judiciary committee has taken the matter up and Alderman Jackman last evening invited the aldermen and other interested parties to be present at a conference with the representatives of the street railway to be held in the assessors' rooms of the city hall on the coming Thursday evening to discuss the matter.

SQUIRREL HOMES IN COURT HOUSE PARK

City Will Open Four Large Ones for Prospective Settlers, and Wild
Scamper Is Expected.

Janesville will expend $12 for four squirrel boxes to be placed in the trees in the courthouse park. When Alderman Matheson introduced the order at the council meeting last evening Alderman Schwartz solicitously inquired whether or not there were any squirrels to be put in the boxes. The question could not be answered authoritatively but the opinion seemed to prevail that if homes were offered wandering members of the tribe might be induced to take up a permanent abode. As soon as it becomes noised about in squirrel circles that free homes are being opened up to settlers in the courthouse park, a wild scamper from all sections of the city and county is anticipated. Alderman Merritt wanted to know if there was any ordinance providing punishment for bad boys in the first ward who are in the habit of stoning the little creatures. It was learned that no such provision existed and measures will doubtless be taken to remedy the defect. The squirrel is to be made welcome here.

HUSBANDS MAY FILL PRISONS

Derelicts in Alimony at La Porte, Ind., Put in Jail.
La Porte, Ind., July 12.—Judge Richter of the La Porte circuit court threatens to fill the county jail with derelict husbands. He has committed Truman Smith and Fred H. Cook to serve sentences of sixty days each, and also imposed a fine on each victim of $100 for contempt of court. This county has a record for divorces and Judge Richter has determined to make all divorced husbands pay the alimonies which he imposes, in addition to fees for attorneys, or commit them to jail. It is said there is a sufficient number of derelict husbands to fill the county jail.

DYNAMITERS BLOW UP A HOUSE

Mysterious Attack Is Made on Superintendent of Iron Mines.
Ironwood, Mich., July 12.—The residence of Earl Walton, superintendent of the Brotherton and Sunday Lake mines at Wakefield, on the east end of the Gogebic range, was destroyed by dynamite early Monday. A lighted fuse probably set off the explosive. Sections of the house were blown 200 feet, but the family, asleep upstairs, escaped serious injury. There is no clue to the identity of the perpetrators. A strike occurred at the mines in January. Sheriff Olson has sworn in an extra force of deputies.

BIG STRIKE OF MEAT PACKERS

Fifty Thousand Workers Quit Their Jobs at Noon Today.
Chicago, July 12.—Nearly 50,000 workers in all the principal meat packing concerns in the United States will go on strike at noon today. The industry will be paralyzed. Aside from such cattle, sheep and hogs as can be slaughtered in small local establishments in the various cities, no fresh meat can be marketed, either for domestic use or for export, until the trouble between the packers and their union employees is settled, or until nonunion workers are secured.

Gen. Funston Goes East.
Washington, July 12.—By an order issued at the war department Brig. Gen. Frederick Funston has been detached from the command of the department of the Columbia and placed in command of the department of the east.

Left Fielder Is Struck Down.
McKeesport, Pa., July 12.—While Charles Jeffries, left fielder of the Johnstown baseball team, was playing he was struck down by lightning and died almost instantly. Some other players were stunned.

Lightning Destroys Ice-House.
Antioch, Ill., July 12.—Esch Brothers & Rebers' ice-house at Leon lake was struck by lightning and completely destroyed by fire. The building was full of ice and comparatively new.

Lightning Kills Man at Elgin.
Elgin, Ill., July 12.—One man killed, several people stunned, and half a dozen barns struck by lightning are results of a fierce thunder and rain storm which passed over this city.

Ideas on Verse.
"Don't be afraid of making me angry by telling me your candid opinion of my verse, old fellow. Criticism doesn't make any difference with me." "I know that, my dear boy; but the trouble is that it don't make any difference with your verses, either."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

Valuable Catalogue.
The most valuable book ever published by a private citizen was probably the catalogue of the Walters collection of pictures and ceramics in Baltimore. Only 100 copies were published, which were presented to the great libraries and museums of the world. This small edition cost more than $100,000.

...Forty Years Ago...

Janesville Daily Gazette, Tuesday, July 12, 1861.—Shall We Have a Town Clock?—There seems to be a great desire, particularly among the mechanics and laboring men of the city, that there should be a town clock put up on some conspicuous place, in order to furnish a uniform standard of time. It has been suggested that one can be obtained and put up at a trifling cost on the steeple of the new Catholic church, and quite a number of men have signified their willingness to small sums to aid in the procurement of such an article. If some energetic person would take hold of the matter, it could be very soon ascertained whether the project were feasible.

The Escape of Two Rascals.—The men who assaulted Mr. Lockwood on Friday last, made their escape from this city on Sunday by stealing a hand car and putting off down the Northwestern road. The sheriff and some of his deputies followed down as far as Clinton Junction, but found nothing but the hand car which they had deserted. It was ascertained afterwards that the two men got onto the train at some station below here and rode to within five or six miles of Chicago and then jumped off the train.

Terrific Blow at Lima.—From a gentleman of this city, who has just returned from Lima, we learn that a terrific gale of wind, taking a sweep of about a mile and a half in width, passed through the town of Lima, touching a portion of the village, on Saturday afternoon, last. Forest and fruit trees were broken off and uprooted and more or less damage was done to fences and buildings. A wind of Mr. Oliver Sanbury's house was blown down, but our informant could not learn that anybody was personally injured, but to what extent he did not ascertain.

Advance in Charges.—The draymen of the city, we understand, have found it necessary to demand fifty cents a load for carting goods to and from the depot in the future. The necessity of such a step will be apparent to all who are compelled to buy food for horses and themselves.

COTTON MILLS RESUME WORK

Manufacturers Tire of Curtailment and New Agreement Is Planned.
Fall River, Mass., July 12.—Most of the Fall River cotton mills have resumed operations after a ten-days' shutdown. Many of the manufacturers are firing of the curtailment policy which has been in force here nearly four months, and as soon as a new agreement, now being worked out by many members of the Fall River Manufacturers' association, is formally assented to, it is expected the mills will be more active. The operatives, of whom there are more than 25,000 in the cloth mills, are restless over the situation. They have sustained a loss in wages during the spring and summer amounting to a reduction of 40 per cent.

MADMAN IS BENT ON SUICIDE

Safety Pin May Prove the Means of Ending His Life.
Elgin, Ill., July 12.—In a frenzied effort to end his life, Fred Wilson, a young Chicago man confined in the Illinois Northern Hospital for the Insane, has, at different times, swallowed tempestuous nails, two lead pencils and an open safety-pin. In each case the effort at suicide has been frustrated by the prompt work of physicians, but Wilson now lies near death from his last attempt. The safety-pin he swallowed lacerated his stomach and it is feared blood poisoning has resulted. Wilson, who is sane on all subjects except his suicidal mania, boasts of his prowess and says he hopes that "death will get ahead of the doctors this time."

President Nichols Has an Insurance Plan for His Constituents.
Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 12.—The annual convention of the United Mine Workers of the Wyoming and Lackawanna districts was opened at Pittston Monday, delegates representing 78,000 mine workers being present. Several important questions are to be considered, an insurance plan proposed by President T. D. Nichols; the attitude of the operators on the check weighing and the check docking boys' grievance, and sustaining interest in the union board being the principal ones.

GIRL IS KILLED BY HER LOVER

Rejected Iowa Suitor Takes Life of His Young Sweetheart.
Des Moines, Iowa, July 12.—James Vogelony, aged 22, shot his 15-year-old sweetheart, Anna Underansky, five times with a revolver, causing instant death. The crime was committed at Hocking, Iowa. Vogelony killed the girl because she refused to marry him. He was found hiding in a haystack and placed in jail at Albia.

Something of a Bird.

The possibilities of the English language are never better shown than when some western musical critic lays himself out in judgment upon one of Mr. Conried's operatic stars. Mme. Semblich recently sang in San Francisco, and a newspaper critic of much distinction pronounced her "the peerless canary of colorature."—New York Tribune.

Periods of Children's Growth.

Dr. Leslie Mackenzie says in regard to the growth of boys that the first acceleration of height after infancy comes near the end of the first seven years; the second, about the years of 9 to 10, and the third, from 13 to 15. With girls the rate of increase is somewhat more uniform. Growth begins to slow down at the age of 12, and by the age of 17 it has sunk to less than one inch a year.

Worldwide British Empire.

It is possible to go round the world and touch on British territory all the way—viz., from England to Halifax Nova Scotia, across Canada to Vancouver, across the Pacific to Hong-Kong, thence to Singapore, Penang, Cape Town, St. Helena and England.

Profit From Lavatories.

The public works committee of Birmingham, England, in submitting to the city council a proposition for the construction of an additional underground lavatory, etc., announced that where small charges are made there are profit possibilities in conveniences of this kind. The committee said that the four underground lavatories, etc., were paying the city a net profit of $2,433 a year.

Charge Murder to Tramps.
Norfolk, Va., July 12.—John S. O'Brien and Joseph Day, white tramps, arrested for shooting an officer who was ejecting them from the freight yards at Plover Point, are charged with murdering Jacob Rossier, an aged looker.

Kills Wife; Commits Suicide.
New York, July 12.—In a jealous rage William Noerling fatally wounded his wife and then committed suicide in Brooklyn. The couple had five children, who were huddled in an adjoining room when the crime was committed.

Bodder Pleads Guilty.
St. Louis, Mo., July 12.—Charles J. Denny pleaded guilty to bribery in connection with city lighting deals. Sentence was deferred until July 19. Denny was a former member of the house of delegates.

Hint for the Sick Room.
Never ask a sick person what she would like to eat or drink. Let the meals always be nicely cooked and their exact nature unknown till they appear. Little surprises in the way of food do much to tempt the appetite.

NATURE'S OWN REMEDY.
When the mountaineer becomes afflicted with any of the numerous ailments, he does not waste much time but goes directly to the woods for Nature's own remedies.

Yarrow, which dried is a standby for Coughs when it has been made into a wicked looking brew. Fir-balsam, couched drop by drop from the blisters which swell on the balsam at full noon is a sovereign remedy for Chest and Lung Complaints. Sunflower-seeds steeped, strained and sweetened with molasses will cure the Whooping Cough. Horse-radish leaves, washed, bruised, and bound on the face and back of the neck, will drive away Neuralgia. A hot Nutmeg balm tied round the neck, will keep it away—at least, so say many mountaineers. Onions, sliced, poulticed and placed in a cloth and laid over the affected part, will draw out inflammation. A red Onion halved and one part slightly scooped out and the cup placed over a Carbuncle or Boil will speedily remove the pus.

There are many of these similar remedies in Nature's laboratory located in the woods and along the highways but they cannot be listed at all times as few people know how to distinguish the different medicinal herbs from those that are poisonous and dangerous. To buy all of them from your druggist would require a great outlay of money. All the curative powers of the foregoing are combined in the new discovery—

LIVES DEARER THAN OUR VERY OWN

How many lives dearer to us than our very own have been placed in needless jeopardy by failure to provide against and forestall the great suffering which too frequently accompanies and follows the bearing of children? That we would do anything within our power to obviate the possibility of such an happening is too patent to admit of question; therefore—mark well this fact—a liniment,

MOTHER'S FRIEND

by name, has been devised, whose function it is to prepare in advance the muscles and tissues intimately associated with parturition. This liniment is for external application. By its use the parts are relaxed and enabled to withstand not only the actual strain brought to bear on them during accouchement, but also to rally from this ordeal and speedily regain their normal proportions and tonicity. It is not irritating to the most sensitive surfaces, and is applicable to all cases. It's not enough to call it Mother's Friend—it's the friend of the whole family. $1.00, all druggists. "What makes you advertise Painless Dentistry? There is no such thing," said a man recently.
He had just come from talking with other Dentists and was using ideas they evidently had furnished him.
Dr. Richards showed him his method of work and explained the workings of his Painless treatment, and the man laughed, as they say, at once, and said:
"Well, I must confess, you do act 'I do Painless work.'"
All Dr. Richards asks is the opportunity to demonstrate to you personally the truth about his Painless methods.

THE LESSON OF COLORADO.

Colorado has suffered much, but she has also gained much. She has blundered, she has also triumphed. She has done wrong, but she has also done good. Much has been said concerning the things in which she has failed. Let something be said concerning those things in which she has succeeded.

1. She has, on the whole, given an exhibition of patience under great provocation, such as perhaps no other commonwealth could have equalled. When it is remembered how immense were the losses, how severe the strain, how bitter the controversy, and how bloody the outrages, the wonder is that the people of Colorado did not long ago break out into acts of violence as wicked as the deeds of violence that provoked them. That as a matter of fact they conducted themselves with a moderation worthy of all praise. The establishment of martial law has been subjected to criticism. But this act, whether right or wrong, was in full accord with constitution and law. The governor of Colorado was clothed with power to do this thing and his action has been fully upheld by the supreme court of the state. The military has been used to restore order in parts of three counties, but only one killing can be traced to the troops. All the other dead were the victims, not of the military, but of the lawless elements, and it is significant that these victims belonged to the non-union class. There were forcible deportations of men guilty of provoking the disorders, but deportations are not an unprecedented or extreme remedy. Many other states have applied the same remedy. There are illustrious precedents for this course of action. But whether right or wrong, it must be said that it was a mild policy in view of all the provocations. Deportations? Why, in most other states there would have been lynching. We hesitate to think what would have happened in New York under similar conditions. Colorado is deserving of all praise for the spirit of self-control her people have displayed in a grave crisis. After all that has been said, or may be said, in criticism, this fact shines out clearly, that the mistakes made and the wrongs committed in suppressing the disorders were mild, indeed, as compared with the excesses that so sorely tried the patience, depleted the resources and stirred the indignation of the people.

2. The fact must not be lost sight of that the disorders were confined to only about a sixth and one-third of the territory of Colorado, to 6,540 square miles out of a total of 103,645 square miles, to parts of three counties out of an entire state. The whole state, therefore, should not be condemned for what took place in a small part of it. Then as to the establishment of martial law in the affected district. It may be said that the action of the governor is defended on the score that the county officials in the Cripple Creek region practically refused to perform their duty. They were members of, or in sympathy with, the labor unions, which had obtained full control of the machinery of government. We do not propose to argue the question whether this, in itself, constituted a sufficient reason for instituting military rule. We merely say that it greatly increased the provocation for aggressive action. It made the conditions so much harder to deal with. And it may be added that the fact of the labor unions having put their own men into the offices, really weakened them in this crisis. They would have been stronger both at home and in the reputation of their cause abroad, if they had relied entirely upon the moral force of their cause, and the legitimate strength of their organization, and had not tried to supplement this by seizing the government and holding it as a club over their employers.

3. But let us not be misunderstood in this matter. There should not be one law for capital and another for labor. Capital should not be permitted to establish "a closed shop," and labor restrained from doing so. Capital must not be permitted to employ methods of restricting competition, establishing prices and creating monopolies, if labor is prevented from doing these things. There must be fair play, an absolute equality, and democracy. Law must be enforced as strictly against organized capital as against organized labor. The latter has the same rights as the former and there can be no law and liberty in this country until this truth is established. The great danger of the labor problem is in organized capital attempting to crush organized labor and in organized labor attempting to crush capital. Let us have "an open shop" in the broadest meaning of the term—in other words, liberty, and that liberty, always maintained and kept from the excess of license, by enforcement of law. The war in Colorado has served to make all this plainer, and from the distress and loss, the patience and courage of her citizens, the whole country may derive lasting benefit.

THAT MAN BRYAN.

"The delay was caused by that man Bryan." These are the words of a prominent democrat. "That man Bryan" was twice the candidate of the democratic party for president, but now so far has the mighty fallen that there is none to do him reverence. He is merely "that man Bryan." Yet the cheers for him in the convention show that he has some friends left.

Mr. Bryan will, it is probable, continue more or less prominent in public life as long as he lives. But "Bryanism" has passed and the power of Mr. Bryan as a great national leader has gone. The contrast between the figure he made in the democratic convention of 1904 is pitiful when compared with his power in the conventions of 1896 and 1900.

But this is no reason for throwing bricks at departing greatness. Let us be just to Mr. Bryan. He has indeed cost this country a fearful sum in money. It is impossible to estimate in dollars the loss occasioned by his free silver crusade, but every business man knows that the loss has been fearful. The fact that he and his issue have been permanently retired from the arena of national politics is an immense gain to the business situation. But there is something to the credit of Mr. Bryan. Even his free silver agitation, costly as it was to every material interest at least has his compensating advantage, that it served to educate the American people in the money question as nothing else has ever done, and it hastened a final and uncompromising decision in favor of the gold standard. But there are some positive things to be said in favor of Mr. Bryan.

He has conducted his discussions of public questions, if from the standpoint of an agitator, still from a high moral plane. His doctrine of free silver coinage at 16 to 1 was, of course, essentially dishonest, meaning a repudiation of debts, but his advocacy of it was sincere, open and moral. Then Mr. Bryan has uttered a true and wholesome note in his repeated denunciations of corruption and commercialism in politics. We believe that much that he has said along these lines has done much good. There is reason also to believe that his agitation of the trust issue, extreme and unjustified as his view is, will serve not a little to bring about needed reform in corporate management, publicity and government regulation.

The passing of Mr. Bryan removes the money issue as a disturbing factor in American business. Already confidence is increased, and the outlook for trade is brighter.

So how would have the world understood he is for the divine right of kings and that King Edward has no right to the throne of England?

PRESS COMMENT.

Eau Claire Leader: There's an old farm song "At 5 o'clock in the morning." It is appropriate for Farmer Parker for he was nominated at that time yesterday.

Oshkosh Times: La Follette as a democratic gubernatorial candidate! That's right! Laugh!

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: Messrs. Roosevelt and Parker are expected to be utterly astounded when the nomination committee tell them what has happened. But the Commoner will give the Parker news in advance, and illustrated with cuts that will cut.

Chicago Chronicle: According to a computation based on the forthcoming city directory the population of Chicago is 2,241,000, which is an increase over the population last year, computed in the same way, of only 10,000, but there is something to be said about the computation.

Waupaca Post: The Roosevelt and La Follette clubs will be for La Follette first and Roosevelt the very last. Republicans should not be humbugged by them.

Madison Journal: While Bryan and La Follette imagine themselves the storm center of politics, the man who furnishes wind for the bellows should not be forgotten.

Minneapolis Times: If as "Dave" Hill contends, nature has solved the money question, what in thunder is all this scramble about?

Rock Island Journal: As a correct republican policy free trade between the country and its island possessions is hardly to be questioned.

Milwaukee Sentinel: With advancing years King Edward is developing quieter tastes in the matter of apparel. At Ascot he wore "a blue frock coat, a purple tie, white rufflers and a red flower"—an almost somber ensemble.

Fond du Lac Commonwealth: When ever there is a dearth of news, some overly energetic but judicious reporter rings in the time-worn rumor that the Wisconsin Central road has been sold. Really, it seems as if it were about time to give this canard a rest.

Chicago Record-Herald: Guthrie, Oklahoma, claims a population of 27,000. Oklahoma City people declare, however, that if they had the kind of a population Guthrie has they'd try to make the figures as small as possible.

Cincinnati Commercial Tribune: The stupidity of the arrangements committee at St. Louis doesn't appear to have been so very stupid, after all. "The ticket family" went mightily far to keeping Willie Handolph Hearst from packing the galleries.

South Milwaukee Journal: What a lot of work and worry some people undergo in order to receive an empty honor! The democratic party is having a regular monkey and parrot time over its presidential nominee, and its chance of electing a candidate is hardly worth mentioning.

La Crosse Leader-Press: The rule in democratic national conventions that nominations for president and vice president shall be made only by a two-thirds vote of the delegates present has survived the several shocks of party division in the past eight years and is still to remain binding for four years more. There was no serious talk by the Parker people at the convention of rescinding the rule and allowing the nomination of candidates by a simple majority vote, a step the convention had authority to take, and which the Parker delegates had power to take, having more than half the votes in the convention. Some doubt existed whether Judge Parker could muster a two-thirds vote—there was no doubt for some weeks that he would get a majority—but his managers, who number some of the most astute political managers in the country, did at any time indicate a purpose to repeal an obsolete rule. It will therefore remain in force until 1908 at least. No good reason has ever been shown for the adoption of the two-thirds rule. Designed to insure the nomination of an overwhelming majority of a party, it operates rather to defeat candidates who have more than half but less than two-thirds of the votes and to compel the nomination of candidates who represent only minorities. It might well have been dropped years ago but tradition has maintained it and the sanction of each national convention has made it stronger. The democrats have been more conservative in regard to the two-thirds rule than in dealing with more important subjects.

THE WEAR—Look at your own or your neighbor's house painted last year with lead and oil. Note its faded, dull and chalky appearance. COVERING CAPACITY—One gallon of Health & Milligan Paint will cover more surface than one and one-half gallons of lead and oil, for this reason, it is reground by machinery into a very fine, thoroughly mixed paint.

THE PAINTER does not recommend mixed paint because he can make more money on lead and oil (mixed with benzine and white lead).

HONEST MEN and experienced painters prefer Health & Milligan Painters are—

DETAIL OF THE COUNCIL MEET

SOME ALDERMEN TOOK EXCEPTION TO TAX BUDGET.

COMPLAINTS REGARDING PARK

Were Discussed, and Measure May Be Introduced Providing for a Light in Certain Dark Portions

Besides the fixing of the tax levy for 1904 numerous other matters of importance were attended to at the meeting of the city council last evening. Alderman Schindley was the only one of the city fathers not present at the session. The report of the city treasurer for the month of June was received and placed on file. The assessment rolls for the five wards were accepted and it was ordered that the city hall should be made the auditing of the treasurer's books for the past two years was adopted. The report of the board of directors of the Janesville Library was received and placed on file. An inquiry from the city treasurer as to what fund the receipts for the dog licenses were to be credited was referred to the city attorney for a written opinion. The bills of Aldermen Conrad and Davies for thirteen days labor on the board of review were referred to the city attorney for a written opinion on the liability of the city. Instructions were given the city clerk to draw an order on the treasurer for $500 payable from the general fund in favor of Thomas Madden whose application for a saloon license was not granted. It was also ordered that the annual dues of $1 for the membership of Janesville in the American League of Municipalities be forwarded to Secretary S. E. Sparling. An opinion of the city attorney on the question as to whether the limitation stipulated in Chap. 436 of the laws of 1903 is on the annual cost of the bond of the city treasurer or for the total time it has to run, was requested. The report of the finance committee on the bills for material and labor was received and adopted.

Disagree on Tax Levy

After the report of the finance committee on the tax levy and budget for 1904, Alderman Jackman moved that the general fund appropriation be reduced $2,000 and the fire and water fund $2,000. This was interpreted by some of the city fathers as a blow aimed at the proposed new fire station and a hot discussion ensued. The motion was lost. Alderman Connell thought that the library board ought to keep within the $3,500 allowed them when the building was constructed. The library was in danger of becoming a burdensome luxury if increased appropriations were to be asked for every year. He moved as an amendment to Alderman Matheson's motion for the adoption of the budget that the sum set apart for the library be reduced from $1,000 to $3,500. The motion was lost. The motion to adopt the report of the finance committee prevailed by a vote of 5 to 1. Aldermen Connell, Jackman, Murray, and Sheridan registering dissent. The ordinance providing for the issue of thirty $500 Garfield school bonds was called up, advanced to its third reading, and placed on passage. Alderman Jackman introduced the report of the municipal court for the month of June and the same was received and placed on file. The bond of J. J. Dalton was found to be in due form and he was granted a license for a saloon at 209 West Milwaukee street. The report of the street commissioner, showing among other things that 1,332 1/2 cubic yards of crushed stone had been used during the season, and the report of the assistant street commissioner on new sidewalks, were received and placed on file.

All Not Well in Parks

The sidewalk grades furnished for the north side of Wall street from Jackson to High and for the north side of Center from Franklin to Jackson, were accepted. The petition of Prospect avenue residents that the driveway established be 33 feet from curb to curb was held over for consideration until another meeting. Alderman Connell delivered the report of the board of education for the month of June. Chairman Matheson of the committee on parks called attention to a number of complaints that had been received regarding the congregation of large numbers of people at night time in the depression situated in that portion of the public park which lies east of the courthouse. Either a light or police service might correct the evil. He asked the council to be prepared for a measure he might bring up at the next meeting. Alderman Murray said that he had understood that of late there had been adequate police service in the park. ## MR. SUTHERLAND ON CONVENTION

RETURNS FROM THE GREAT DEMOCRATIC GATHERING.

TALKS OF THE EXCITEMENT

Every Session of the National Convention Was Full of Interest to the Delegates.

Mr. George Sutherland has returned from St. Louis where he went as a delegate to the democratic national convention. He describes the scenes in the great convention hall where Parker was nominated and Bryan overthrown as the greatest sight he has ever witnessed. Mr. Sutherland was chosen by the Wisconsin delegation as their representation on the committee which will notify Judge Parker of his nomination. In speaking of the convention he says:

"It was the greatest convention I ever attended. The excitement from the opening to the close was intense. The all night sessions were wonderful and the manner in which the great crowds were handled was something new. In 1892 I attended the convention that nominated Cleveland and we had an all night session then, but it was nothing like the all night sessions we had at St. Louis. No; I never was tired or sleepy. Why, we had no time to be. There was something to hear and see all the time. The excitement when Champ Clarke made his nominating speech of Cookrell of Missouri was one of the most wonderful sights I ever witnessed. I had become tired of sitting still and had walked to the rear of the hall. Suddenly from all parts of the hall there burst forth such applause as I have never have heard. Then came the flags. Little American flags had been brought into the hall and distributed and almost in a second the whole hall was alive with the national emblem. Men, women, heartst, Parker, Wall, Bryan men, in fact everyone was on their feet cheering and waving flags; it was a sight once seen long to be remembered.

Wisconsin Did Not Vote

"No; Wisconsin did not vote with Bryan. They voted for the seating of the Illinois contesting delegation because our member of the committee who examined the credentials told us he believed Harrison delegates had the legal right to the seats. Otherwise we voted against Bryan on every move. We were sold for Parker after Wall. In fact all the great applause that Bryan received came from the Hearst delegates and from men who were doubtless paid by this word to 'boom' their candidate. I do not think Bryan liked it and as the voting continued he received less and less. The Hearst men were everywhere trying to obstruct and interfere with the work. They tried to stampede the delegates with bogus telegrams which they published in the Chicago press. Parker's One democratic convention has been stamped but we shall never see another. One feature which showed this element's methods was the statement of the Iowa delegate that he wished to cast the only unthought vote in his delegation, and the manner he was treated by his delegates. The Georgia delegates had to rescue him.

John Sharp Williams

"John Sharp Williams was a power. He outgeneraled Bryan and out-talked him. He was wise and gentlemanly about it, but he did not mislead me. He was too much for Bryan, however. Senator Daniels also talked and worked against his old favorite. One of the surprises of the convention was William's speech. To think that that old fire-eater being able to deliver a speech of such mild qualities and still so forceful surprised us all. Rose was practically the only man who made a speech, who could be heard all over the hall and while he was wrought up to a pitch with the proceedings and may have been a little harsh on some elements he made a good speech.

Hearst Surprised

"One of the biggest surprises to the Hearst crowd was Bryan's seconding Cookrell's nomination. They had counted on Bryan to help them and they were disappointed. The Nebraska delegation did not vote solidly with Bryan but split up continually. I do not think many of the delegates saw the exposition. I went to the grounds for three hours one day, but did not have any more time. The hotels were crowded but we were fairly comfortable." Mr. Sutherland left Janesville last Monday and returned Sunday night.

General Politics

In speaking on the general political situation Mr. Sutherland firmly believes Parker will be elected. He says the sentiment will turn towards him more and more and he considers the combination of Parker and Davis a strong one. He believes Bryan will stump for the ticket and that the gold democrats will all rally to his support. In the preliminary fight for delegates, Mr. Sutherland says, the Parker leaders knew where they could count on enough to nominate on the first ballot. In fact long before the vote was over everyone knew Parker had it.

THOMAS WELCH DIED THIS MORNING

Aged Resident of Janesville Has Passed Away—Was Born in Ireland.

At eleven-forty-five this morning the spirit of Thomas Welch passed into the presence of his Maker. At the moment of his death he was surrounded by loving members of the family who had been hastily summoned as the end approached. Mr. Welch was born in Ireland on December 22, 1817. He came to America in his infancy, settling with his parents in Lewis county, N. Y. He was left an orphan at the age of ten years and was brought up as a member of a Quaker community. His early life was full of work. During the summer months he worked on the farm and in the winter attended a district school. He came west to Janesville in 1843 and worked first in the brick-yard located here, owned by General Sheldon. In 1844 he went back to New York state and married Miss Catherine Favel. He returned with his bride and settled on a farm two miles north of the city. Mr.

Welch hauled wheat to Milwaukee during the following winter, receiving twenty-five cents a bushel.

Mr. Welch was a man of unimpeachable character and of great ambition. He was fond of quoting the sayings of Poor Richard's almanac, and while he was not connected actively with any church he was a close student of the bible. In politics he was a democrat, although he might have been classed as an independent voter. He retired from active work about thirty years ago and moved from his farm into the city, purchasing his home at 177 Madison street where he passed away this morning.

He leaves four children to mourn his loss: Misses Helen, Anna and Kate of this city, and Frank P. Welch of the town of Janesville. Mr. Welch had a rough exterior but a warm heart and was loved by all who knew him. In their bereavement the family has the sympathy of their many friends. Notice of the funeral will be given later.

Mrs. Madge Norton

Mrs. Madge R. Norton died at the Hamilton hospital, Franklinton, North Dakota, June 19, of consumption of the bowels. She leaves a husband, three children, mother, two brothers, and a sister to mourn her loss.

Famous Horsemen.

Billings and Smathers and Their Well Known Racing Stables.

No two millionaire sportsmen in America are better known than C. K. G. Billings and Elmore E. Smathers.

Mr. Billings was originally a Chicagoan, and like Mr. Smathers, who was formerly a Pittsburgher, he now makes his residence principally in New York.

Mr. Smathers and Mr. Billings both won fame as patrons of the trotting turf. Of late, however, Mr. Smathers has showed decided leanings toward the thoroughbreds. He has trotters and runners galore now and finds equal delight in each. His best known

C. K. G. BILLINGS, OWNER OF LOU DILLON. Trotters are of course those gallant campaigners, Major Delmar and Lord Derby. His fastest thoroughbred is McChesney, champion of the west as a three-year-old.

Other thoroughbreds owned by Mr. Smathers are Dick Bernard, Grand Opera, Irene Lindsay, Stevedore and Witchcraft.

Frank Taylor is his trainer.

Mr. Billings' latest fame has come through his ownership of Lou Dillon, the world's champion trotter. It is Mr. Billings' intention to campaign the sensational Dillon mare this season, and, in fact, she has already begun to try for glory.

Lou Dillon recently gave the Cleveland railroads a flutter by making a mile in 2:07 1/2. It is said that Millard Sanders did not expect to let her stop quite so fast, but she was anxious, and so he gave her her head part of the way. The third quarter was trotted at a two minute gait—40 seconds—and the last half in 1:01 1/2, the mare being taken back and under restraint coming home. Those who saw her say unhesitatingly that she will be a greater mare this year than ever.

Her whilom rival, Major Delmar (1:59 3/4), is at present far behind her in point of condition. He was wintered by his trainer, Alta McDonald, at Albany, N. Y., where winter lingered long in the lap of spring this year. At last accounts the Major was doing quarters around a 2:10 gait only. He is, however, reported in the most robust health, with his legs as clean as a colt's.

The plans for Major Delmar this year are said to be quite different from those of last. In 1903 he was subjected to a grueling that would have put anything but an iron horse out of commission. From the time he developed record breaking speed, in August, for a period of over two months fast miles and frequent shipments were "socked to him" week after week in a way that seemed almost merciless to many onlookers. The strain of miles in or close to two minutes is immense, and when a horse is asked for them week after week, sometimes for several in a week, with fatiguing journeys by rail intervening, only an extraordinary one can emerge from the ordeal unscathed.

Major Delmar showed himself made of the sternest stuff, but that he lost form is almost certain. Neither before nor after his race against Lou Dillon for the Memphis gold cup did he have a chance to beat her. His performance to the eye gave every indication of being that of an overdone horse.

So far as the race was concerned he was beaten before the first quarter mile of the first heat was trotted, and at the end of both heats he labored and floundered like a ship without a rudder.

The first public appearance of the Major will be made at the Kentucky track, Buffalo, at the grand circuit meeting, the first week in August, on which occasion Mr. Smathers will drive him to beat his wagon record of 2:03 1/2, made at Lexington last October.

Urinary trouble, diabetes. Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all. L. Lawrence of 409 S. Franklin St., engineer at the Janesville Electric Light Co., says: "Seven years ago I injured my back by falling through a bridge near Afton into the Rock river. I was on a traction engine, its weight broke through and the whole thing went into the stream. Since that time my back has ached by spells sometimes very severely, if I caught cold it settled in my kidneys and if I brought a strain on my back lifting the result was a bad backache and sharp twinges of pain in my loins. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills and after I used them I was free from backache. I am in better health than any time since falling through the bridge."

....TAKE.... THE SCENIC LINE,

A SOLDIER OF COMMERCE

By JOHN ROE GORDON

Copyright, 1922, by F. R. Tombs

At last it came. The officer, in mounting a dash through the forces of the Zannucks, was beset by several of them with spears. He brought his horse suddenly to a halt, tried to swerve, and the horse came down almost on his haunches. With a quick leap Harvey sprang upon the horse behind the officer. Spears about to be hurled were lowered, and the men stood in amazement. The officer tried to turn, to reach Harvey with his sword, but the iron arms of the American were around his neck, and he was soon choked into submission. With a shout of victory Harvey hurled him to the ground.

"Now, Palpak! Now!" he cried, and with a rush the Zannucks attacked again. Their onslaught was so ferocious that the soldiers of the American fled along the pass, to be met by Domitian with the remaining hundred.

"Victory!" cried Harvey. "Victory!" He sped to the camels, as did Orskoff, and at the command of Koura, who could manage the beasts, the camels knelt. Anna and Koura were soon in their lovers' arms.

"My darling! My darling! You are saved!" cried Harvey. "The Bokharans have been defeated!"

"They would not have been," said Orskoff, "but for the brains of your American."

"How is it you are on Bokharan soil against the command of the czar, my captain?" asked Koura.

"To save you, my sweet one; to save the girl I love. I learned my duty from the American."

So absorbed were they in their greetings that a cry from the Zannucks did not reach them. Happening to turn his head, Harvey saw the form of Palpak stretched upon the ground.

"Good heaven! Palpak killed!" he exclaimed.

He rushed to the chief and found that he was severely wounded.

"Who knows as to what our surgery?" he asked. "Any one answering, Harvey knelt beside the chief and began kneading the bullet wound in his side.

"Is it the last of me, my friend?" said Palpak.

"Perhaps not. I'm pretty good at this sort of thing. Be patient, and we'll see what can be done."

The hoofs of a horse pounding the road caused them to look up. Domitian soon appeared.

"How goeth the fight here?" he demanded. "We have defeated the soldiers of the anner."

"And so did we," said one of the captains. "But Palpak, our chief, is wounded."

"Palpak wounded!"

They led Domitian to his brother. There was no sympathy in his dark face.

"Art thou wounded to thy death, my brother?"

"This American friend saith he can do much, yet I fear the bullet has reached a spot that kills."

"It is customary for a dying chieftain to proclaim his successor. I am thy eldest brother and so will become chief."

Already the eyes of Palpak were glazing, and he was growing weaker.

"Yes, thou art chief," he whispered.

Then, motioning to his captives to gather round, he said: "Domitian is chief. I die."

Domitian, as soon as he was convinced that his brother was dead, became a changed man.

"Zannucks," he shouted, "I am thy chief! Obey me as thou obeyed my brother, and I will make thee rich by the spoils of the anner. We will pay no taxes to the anner, but will give him battle in the mountains and kill his soldiers. And thou, American and Muscovite, shalt become my slaves and wait upon me in the palace I will build. I shall not be called chief, but king, and the prettiest of the girls we have rescued from the Bokharans shall be my queen."

"Nonsense!" said Harvey. "Your brother promised that we should be sent to the coast safely."

"Let my brother fulfill his promise. I am chief, and thou art now my prisoner. Obey me or thy life will go as did my brother's."

Harvey made a gesture as if to draw his pistol, and Domitian sprang upon him.

"The other! Seize the other! Bind them both!" he cried.

Anna and Koura screamed with terror as they saw their gallant lovers almost buried under the Zannucks that hurried themselves upon them. In a few minutes Harvey and Orskoff were securely bound.

"Dogs of unbelievers!" cried Domitian, shaking his fist in their faces. "Thou interfered with my plans before! Remember the cave! Now will I pay in good coin. Slaves, forever shalt thou serve me!"

Harvey did not answer. He looked at Anna. The poor girl was trembling with terror, and tears were pouring down her cheeks.

"Cheer up, my darling!" he said to her. "We will soon be out of this!"

The chatter of horses on the road could be heard, and the force Domitian had left fighting came up.

"We routed them well," said one of the captains. "What! Is Palpak killed?"

"I am thy chief!" said Domitian. "But there was treasure in the caravan! Where are the camels of the merchants?"

"Below. They fled. After them, and bring them back!"

Fifty started, and the remainder prepared to bury the dead. It was now late in the day, and Domitian was eager to get his caravan off the highway lest a returning force of Bokharans turn victory into defeat.

"We have two of the best camels of the anner," he said. "We cannot take them up the side of the cliff. We must travel by way of the road further up. We will arrange for the burial of the dead, foes as well as friends. Remove all trace of the fight."

The two girls were tenderly cared for, Domitian studying them carefully, as if to decide which was the more beautiful.

"There is my queen," he said, pointing to Anna. "The Muscovite, suit me. I will make her my wife."

"Not much," said Harvey. "There's going to be another deal all around before that takes place."

"Dog! Plst! Be silent!" growled Domitian.

A meal was served, and the two girls were royally treated. A dozen soldiers waited upon them.

After this delay Domitian ordered his men to move, and the entire caravan, captured camels, horses and all, withdrew from the highway and made camp in the thick forest that formed the border of the pass. The horses were left upon the cliff in charge of a few men, and camp was made for the night. Plans for removing the booty to the Zannuck village could be made in the morning. Sentinels were stationed, and a guard was placed over the two girls, Harvey and Orskoff, bound, were thrust under a bush and left there.

"This is terrible!" growled Orskoff. "We have failed, with all our planning."

"Sh-h," whispered Harvey. "Make them think we are sleeping."

"The fellow has another plan," thought Orskoff.

The hours of the night dragged wearily. The soldiers slept, and, not being accustomed in their wild life to keeping guard at night, most of the guards were asleep by midnight. Harvey and Orskoff lay close together. A wriggling motion on the part of Harvey attracted the Russian. In a moment he felt a nudge in the side. Harvey was sitting up, his hands free, industriously untying the cords around his legs and feet. With a swift slash of his knife he set the Russian free.

"Come!" he whispered.

He crawled away in the darkness, keeping in the deeper shadows of the trees. Orskoff followed. They kept working for many minutes. They kept working their way in the direction of the road and away from Sileon. At last, having cleared the camp, Harvey stood up straight.

"What is your plan?" whispered Orskoff breathlessly.

"I have none except to get away," said Harvey. "Free, we can do something. Let's walk along this road, and as we walk we can think."

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpelde on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpelde speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it causes that itching which dandruff will cause.

Newbro's Herpelde effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness. In killing it, Herpelde stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpelde Co., Detroit, Mich.

THREE SUSPECTS
IN MURDER CASE

ANGRY MOB SURROUNDS JAIL

Prisoner Protests His Innocence, Despite the Fact That His Actions Are Against Him—Sheriff and Deputies Watching Another Man.

Newcastle, Ind., July 12.—It is the accepted theory here that three men were concerned in the murder of Mrs. William M. Starbuck and her baby while her husband was absent from their home, near Greensboro, last Saturday night.

Two suspects, Haley Gipe, 20 years old, and William Lockridge, are under arrest, and another young man is being watched by the sheriff's deputies. Gipe is a farmer and Lockridge lives in Greensboro.

The fantastic plot of a French dramatist was re-enacted in this atrocious murder. Between her struggles with her assailant Mrs. Starbuck made two despairing efforts to call for help by telephone. Her murderer wrested the receiver from her grasp. The nearest neighbor, Mrs. Charles Swain, a mile away, who was at her telephone, plainly heard the sounds of violence and a woman's shriek for mercy. Then followed a silence so intense that the ticking of a clock on the wall near the telephone a mile away was distinctly audible.

Mob Needs Only a Leader.

Haley Gipe is in the Henry county jail here. Tracks through the cornfields were traced from the elctern to near his home. He is a cowering, pitiable figure between intervals of protesting his innocence. Hundreds of angry farmers surround the structure. The mob is a powder mine, waiting merely the spark of leadership. Before her death Monday morning Mrs. Starbuck said as her husband lifted her in his arms:

"He came in by that window and dragged me out that way."

She was sinking fast.

"Who did it?" asked her husband, bending down to catch the faintest gasp. She did not hear him or did not understand.

"Why didn't they answer, twice I tried to call by telephone."

These were her last words.

In the presence of the bodies of his wife and 4-months old daughter, found and dragged from a cistern, the half-crazed husband and father made a vow of vengeance.

Husband Vows Vengeance.

"I will take no rest until the ones guilty of this awful crime have been punished," he said, lifting his hand and then kissing the faces of his wife and child.

Starbuck believed that Gipe is guilty. It was chiefly through his urging that the arrest was made. Gipe has been in jail for fighting.

The postmortem developed that Mrs. Starbuck's death was due to hemorrhage of the lungs, caused by her repeated screams for help when she stood to her nipples in the water in the abandoned cistern where she was thrown. The baby was drowned. It had been found head first in the water. It is supposed that, as she was dragged from the window, Mrs. Starbuck caught her baby in her arms.

Gipe, who is 29 years old, may be innocent, but his actions were largely responsible for the first suspicion against him. He talked strangely of the crime, asserting many times that he could prove an alibi. This was before he was supposed to have known that he was under suspicion.

Prisoner Acts Queerly.

His arrest was made so quietly that scarcely any one knew of it until Sheriff Christopher had driven out of Greensboro in his buggy. The sheriff's presence in the village was not generally known. He gained entrance to a store next to Gipe's house, and thence to the dwelling. "I want you," said the sheriff. Gipe turned pale and trembled.

"I know nothing about that murder," he said, before the sheriff told him his errand. He told conflicting stories.

The crime was committed between 9 and 10 o'clock Saturday night. The strongest evidence against Gipe is the tracks that were found leading through the cornfields from the scene of the crime to a point near his home. These were discovered by Sheriff Christopher. "Those tracks make it look bad for the prisoner," said the sheriff. "Though Starbuck had urged Gipe's arrest, I hesitated to do so in the absence of proof, but the circumstantial evidence, his conflicting stories, his actions, and his reputation are all against him."

Though the sheriff said he did not seriously fear trouble, he and his two deputies and the chief of police were on duty at the jail all night, heavily armed, and deputies were sworn in for the occasion within call.

The county commissioners will offer a reward of $1,000 for the arrest and conviction of the murderers. This will be duplicated by private subscriptions.

Ball Player Is Killed.

CZAR ABOLISHES
EXILE SYSTEM

END OF ARBITRARY METHODS

Notable Reform Is Recommended by the Council of the Empire and Is Approved by M. Plehve, Minister of the Interior.

St. Petersburg, July 12.—The system of condemning political prisoners by administrative order has been abolished by imperial decree and persons accused of political crimes will be tried by the courts under the regular procedure.

This reform is far-reaching, ending forever the arbitrary condemnation to exile of political suspects without the intervention of the courts.

It is considered one of the most sweeping reforms of this generation, and it is understood that it was recommended by the council of the empire, with the acquiescence and approval of the minister of the interior, M. Plehve.

Methods of Exile.

"Exile by administrative process" has been the dark spot in the Russian governmental system for many decades. Exile under this process means the banishment of an obnoxious person from one part of the empire to another without the observance of any legal formalities.

The obnoxious person may not be guilty of any crime, but if in the opinion of the local authorities his presence in a particular place is "prejudicial to public order," or "incompatible with public tranquillity," he may be arrested without a warrant, may be held for two weeks to two years in prison, and may then be exiled by force. He may or may not be informed of the charges against him.

Rise of the System.

The czar's decree abolishing political exile to Siberia without trial marks the beginning of the downfall of a political system that had its origin in the barbarities of the seventeenth century. Singularly enough, the exile system, even with all its horrors, was introduced in the seventeenth century as a reform movement. The first move for reform adopted the exile system as an amelioration from the cruel barbarities of the criminal code. And then the exile system swung to the other extreme. Men were exiled to Siberia for such minor offenses as fortune telling, prize fighting, snuff taking, driving horses with reins, begging, and setting fire to property accidentally.

Figures by George Kennan.

In 1811 another reform wave set in and new rules were adopted. In 1823 Russia began for the first time to register the number of exiles. Here are some of the official figures, secured by George Kennan: From 1823 to 1832, 98,726; from 1832 to 1842, 86,560; from 1842 to 1852, 69,764; from 1852 to 1862, 101,238; from 1862 to 1872, 146,380; from 1872 to 1882, 267,187; from 1882 to 1892, 17,790; from 1892 to 1902, 17,660; from 1892 to 1902, 18,843; from 1892 to 1902, 18,843; from 1892 to 1902, 17,774. Total, 772,979.

The figures for the years since 1887 are not at hand, but doubtless they would swell the grand total to more than 1,000,000.

Starch from Sweet Potatoes.

"The day will, I believe, come when the sweet potato will furnish the starch of the world." So said Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the Bureau of Chemistry in the Agricultural Department, in reply to the appeal of Congressman Brantley of Georgia, that the government, having developed the possibilities of the sugar cane syrup industry, should make a somewhat similar study of the sweet potato.

CLEVER PLAN OF SMUGGLERS

COUNTERFEIT LABELS ARE USED

Trunks Are Decorated With Duplicates of Those Used by the Inspectors and No Trouble Is Experienced in Passing the Packages.

New York, July 12.—By the arrest of a Marconi operator and a hospital steward of the Kaiser Wilhelm II, charged with smuggling Sumatra tobacco, the customs officials have unearthed a new method of smuggling diamonds, silks, tobacco and other merchandise which should pay high duty.

Frauds upon the government enormous in their proportions undoubtedly have been perpetrated by this method. Its successful conduct required a combination of expressmen, steamship men and possibly government officials.

Its beneficiaries, possibly its promoters, are believed to be merchants in this city, some of them men of wealth and prominence.

False Labels on Trunks.

Smuggling in trunks, carried as passengers' baggage, upon which labels indicating that they had been properly examined and passed by inspectors were surreptitiously pasted, is the method. Four arrests in all have been made so far.

Trunks containing merchandise which the conspirators arranged to smuggle into the United States were marked with a private mark and placed with hundreds of other trunks owned by passengers.

On arrival in this port the confederates of the smugglers, on board the ship in a position to reach the baggage, would paste on the trunks special labels indicating that the inspectors had examined the contents and found nothing dutiable therein. When the customs officials come across a trunk with such a label on it they pass on to others not labeled. The trunk is then carried to the pier and passes into the hands of its owner. To get these labels is the first requirement for a successful prosecution of the new method. Certainly the swindle involves men employed on the piers, and probably it involves customs officials.

In a single trunk passed by the duplicate label system a smuggler might bring into the United States enough diamonds to make him independently wealthy for life.

The discovery of the scheme came through a trunk being sent to a wrong address. From there it was sent back to the pier, where suspicious were aroused, and it was followed. At the correct address John Koster, to whom it belonged, directed it to be sent to John Heitman, a cigar dealer. Koster was arrested and, it is said, confessed.

There was found in the trunk sixty-five pounds of Sumatra leaf tobacco, on which the duty is $4 a pound. Koster and Heitman were held each in $1,000 bail for the grand jury.

They charged George Kroneke, a Marconi operator, and Robert Fitch, an assistant surgeon or hospital steward of the vessel, with smuggling, and they were arrested.

RAILWAY STATISTICS
SHOW BIG INVESTMENT

Capital Stock Outstanding June 30, 1903, is $12,599,990,258, Being $63,188 for Each Mile of Road.

Washington, July 12.—The interstate commerce commission has announced its statistics of railways in the United States for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1903. They show that the par value of the railway capital then outstanding was $12,599,990,258, which represents a capitalization of $63,188 per mile.

The number of passengers carried was 694,891,335, an increase of 45,033,030 over the previous year; freight carried, 1,304,394,323 tons, an increase of 104,078,536 tons. The gross earnings from the operation of the total of 205,813 miles of railway line, which is the aggregate single-track mileage, were $1,900,846,907, an increase of $174,466,640; operating expenses, $1,257,538,862, an increase of $141,290,105; net earnings, $643,308,045, an increase of $33,176,535; income from other sources than operation, $205,687,480; net income, available for dividends or surplus, $296,376,045.

The total casualties were 86,393, of which 9,840 represented the number of persons killed and 76,553 those injured. The aggregate number of locomotives in service was 43,871, an increase of 2,646; cars in service, 1,763,389; an increase of over 113,000 during the year.

Clung to Antiquated Ways.

In the castle of Canaples, says a writer, Mme. de Crequy's uncle, who resided there, "would not allow a spit to be used in his kitchen, and said it was an invention only fit for the middle classes and financiers. The joints were roasted after the fashion of the thirteenth century, by means of a wheel which was turned by a large dog placed inside it. The unfortunate animal generally ended by going mad."

To Improve Fire Horses.

Eloquent of the state of affairs in London's fire department is this notice issued by the fire chief: "I have noticed that, when turning out at many stations, the movements of the horses are very slow. Instructions are to be given that the horses are to be trained so as to come up to the appliances smartly. I desire that later on the horses shall go to the machines without being led."

Aged Counterfeiter Refuses to Divulge Secret for Which Chemists Seek Without Result.

Columbus, O., July 12.—A secret for which chemists would gladly give a fortune will be lost forever when death comes to the relief of old Bob Mason, now wasting away in the penitentiary hospital. He is serving his fourth term for counterfeiting and once was caught turning out spurious dimes inside the prison walls.

On his deathbed three years ago Miles Ogle, king of the counterfeiters, confided to Mason the secret of a substance which turns silver and base metal to the color of gold. When the assayers at Washington melted up several bogus double eagles, the handwork of Mason, they were baffled by the presence of a mysterious reddish substance, giving the coin its true ring and weight. He declares he will never reveal the secret.

Mason was a confederate soldier, but has followed counterfeiting for forty years and has made and lost fortunes.
